Final Lasagna Plot

Camden Heafitz

2023-07-05

```
Getting sleep and drug files
sleepday <- read_sas("sleepfin.sas7bdat") sleepevents <- read_sas("sleepevents2.sas7bdat") Pill_data <- read_csv("Pill_Data2.csv")</pre>
```

```
Wrangling pill data, imported as a csv from excel.
This code makes the time stamp the correct format so we can use it.
Pill_data$smrxt_bottle_datetime <- as.POSIXct(Pill_data$smrxt_bottle_datetime)</pre>
Making the pill session type and renamed alias to mpid.
pills <- Pill_data |>
  select(alias, smrxt_bottle_datetime) |>
  mutate(session_type = "Pill", start = smrxt_bottle_datetime) |>
  rename('mpid' = alias) |>
  select(-smrxt_bottle_datetime)
Getting Surgery Data
surgery <- sleepevents|>
  select(mpid, surgdatetime, Opioid_or_Non_Opioid) surg <- distinct(surgery)</pre>
Adding surgery to pills abd making it hours after surgery.
Chose .05 so it would be noticeable on the graph. This is roughly 3 minutes.
```

```
pillevents <- pills |>
  left_join(surg)|>
  mutate(start_session = start - surgdatetime, end_session = start_session + 3)|>
  select(-start, -surgdatetime) |>
  filter(start_session >=0, start_session <= 6120)</pre>
Some mpids do not show up in the original sleepevents data set and have NA values here.
This code creates the desired awake intervals for each patient
lasagnatest <- sleepevents lasagnatest <- mutate(sleepevents)</pre> lasagnatest <- select(lasagnatest, study_id, mpid, onsetdatetime,</pre> outbeddatetime, ID_Link_datetime, Opioid_or_Non_Opioid) awake_time <- lasagnatest |>
  group_by(mpid)|>
  mutate(
    awake_start_datetime = outbeddatetime, awake_end_datetime = lead(onsetdatetime),
    session_type = "Awake",
  ) |>
  select(-onsetdatetime, -outbeddatetime)
This code has the desired asleep intervals for each patient sleepeventsTest <- sleepevents |>
  mutate(session_type = "Asleep") |>
  select(study_id, mpid, onsetdatetime, outbeddatetime, session_type, ID_Link_datetime, Opioid_or_Non_Opioid)
This code converts the time to 'hours after surgery' and combines them with pill events.
new_sleep_set <- sleepeventsTest|>
  mutate(hrs_onset_since_surg = onsetdatetime - ID Link_datetime, hrs_outbed_since_surg = outbeddatetime - ID_Link_datetime)|>
  select(-ID_Link_datetime)
The variables in this code now give us measures of time from the surgery.
new_awake_set <- awake_time|>
  mutate(hrs_awake_start_since_surg = awake_start_datetime - ID_Link_datetime, hrs_awake_end_since_surg = awake_end_datetime - ID_Link_datetime) |>
  select(-ID_Link_datetime)
Combing all of the data sets
data1 <- new_sleep_set|>
  mutate(start_session = hrs_onset_since_surg,
```

Creating Lasagna Plot

Sleep and Awake Sessions

